

HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION CONDOMINIUM RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING USE OF TOEPA CONDOMINIUMS

(Note that further requirements may be found in the TOEPA Declaration of the CC&Rs including Article 3 Use Restrictions)

These Condominium Rules and Regulations are effective April 30, 2011, and are adopted for the benefit of the Owners of the Condominiums at Toepa Condominiums. They are intended to contribute to preserving the clean, attractive, natural environment and to enhance the value of the Owner's property in Toepa Condominiums. They are not designed to unduly interfere, restrict, or burden the use of the property.

All Owners and Tenants of Toepa Condominiums and their Guests are required to abide by these Rules and Regulations, which are meant to supplement the provisions of the Condominium Declaration (CC&R'S) and bylaws of Toepa Condominiums. In addition Article 3.1 requires that any lease with a tenant must be in writing and provide that the tenancy is subject to all provisions of the Declaration of CC&R, By laws and these rules and regulations

As such owners must provide a set of Rules and Regulations to their Tenants and Guests. Any expense incurred by the Association as a result of any action in derogation of these Rules and Regulations or of the CC&R'S by the Owners, Tenants or Owner's or Tenant's Guests will be levied directly against the Owner.

QUIET ENJOYMENT: All Owners, Guests, and Tenants have a right to quiet enjoyment. Activity creating noise that disturbs the quiet enjoyment of the premises for the Owners or their Guests shall not be permitted. Owners, Guests, and Tenants shall maintain minimal noise levels before 7:00 a.m. and after 10:00p.m.

Complaints must be signed with the Sheriff's Department regarding any noise violations and reported to management.

OCCUPANCY LIMITATIONS:

No more than three people may occupy a single Unit at the Toepa Owners Association. Homeowners who rent their units need to include this rule into their leases.

- E. Any offense or violation of the Rules and Regulations will result in a fine.

APPEAL PROCESS:

Per NRS 116 any owner who is issued a citation and fine or any other sanction will have the opportunity to address the Board in executive session prior to the fine(s) or sanction being imposed. The Owner prior to the scheduled executive session may request in writing that the violation and sanctions be addressed in an open Board meeting rather than in the confidential executive session.

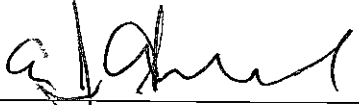

ADDITIONAL ENFORCEMENT RIGHTS: Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary, the Association may elect to enforce any provisions of the Declaration, Bylaws, or any Rule or Regulation by self-help (specifically including, without limitation, the towing of any vehicles that are in violation of parking regulations) or by suit in law or in equity to enjoin any violation or to recover monetary damages or both without the necessity of compliance with the procedure set forth above.

The Terms "Condominium Declaration," "Bylaws," "Board," "Common Expense," "Unit," "Management," "Association," "Condominium Rules," and "Owner" used in these Rules shall have the same meaning as set forth in the Condominium Declaration of the TOEPA OWNERS ASSOCIATION recorded in the office of the Recorder of Washoe County, State of Nevada. As in the Condominium Declaration, the term "Common Area" includes "Limited Common Area".

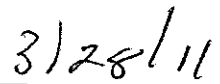

REVISION OF RULES: These condominium Rules can be revised at any time by the Board as conditions warrant, provided a written communication is sent to each Owner advising him or her of the change 30 days in advance of its effective date.

These Rules and Regulations are adopted by TOPA OWNERS ASSOCIATION Board of Directors on March 18, 2011 and become effective on April 30, 2011
